EUREKA HELLAS BUILDING EXPANSION

EUREKA HELLAS S.A. has proceeded with the acquisition of a property within the A' Industrial Park of Volos, as part of its broader strategic planning. The plot, covering a total area of 37,000 sq.m., includes a 21,000 sq.m. building and is adjacent to the Company's existing privately owned property.

According to its development plan, this strategic move strengthens EUREKA HELLAS' spatial and operational capacity, aiming to support further growth, achieve corporate benefits, and enhance its overall business activity.

This acquisition forms part of the Company's wider investment program in the Greek market, which includes, among others, the modernization and automation of its production lines to improve efficiency and drive innovation. At the same time, it reaffirms the Company's commitment to delivering high-quality products, while reducing energy costs and its environmental footprint.

With more than 60 years of experience in the design, production and distribution of home care and hygiene products, the Company holds a strong portfolio of brands in both the Greek and international markets, having earned the trust and loyalty of consumers.

EUREKA owns a strong portfolio of well-established brands in both Greek and international market, such as the homonymous brand EUREKA, AROXOL, TOPINE, FLUP etc., which are produced in the modern, technologically advanced factory of the company, in the Industrial Area of Volos.
